

Leaving 99

Imagine This:

Jesus is visibly here, in this room. He is slowly walking around, stopping here and there to speak a word or two into some ones ear. He gently lays a hand on one person, then turns and holds another for a moment.

How do you feel in this moment?

What are you thinking?

Suddenly Jesus stops and looks around, a concerned look on his face. He is searching for someone who is not here this weekend. He abruptly turns and walks out of the room. You rush out the door and manage to step into the hallway just as Jesus turns the corner. You try to find him, but he's nowhere to be seen.

How do you feel about this? Do you feel ditched?
Left behind?

Ask yourself why you feel the way you do.

Who do you think he is looking for? Do you have a part in who Jesus is seeking? Are you guiding Him by your thoughts of that person?

Take a moment to pray for the person who came to mind. If you are willing, write that person's FIRST name on the cross and say a prayer for others who are lost.
